

Universalism for Our Time: 2012 Universalist Convocation

at

Murray Grove Retreat and Renewal Center

"Where Universalism traditionally began"

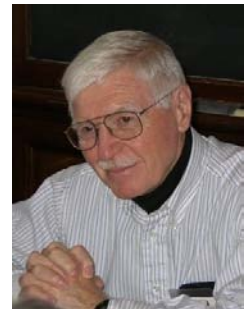

May 18-20, 2012

To explore and draw from the heritage of Universalist experience and faith to inform Unitarian Universalism today and help light its way toward the future.

Keynote Speaker: Rev. Richard Gilbert

"Love That Won't Let Us Go - Or Off"

Parish minister, author, preacher, worker for social justice:
currently Social Justice Coordinator for the St. Lawrence UU District

Presentations by:

Christian Universalist Rev. Kalen Fristad: United Methodist minister for more than 35 years; author of DESTINED FOR SALVATION: God's Promise to Save Everyone; traveled the country "planting seeds of hope, and spreading the wonderful message of God's unconditional love and unlimited salvation;" now serves churches in Iowa half time, spending half time on the road speaking on universalism.

Rev. Rosemary Bray McNatt: Senior Minister of The Fourth Universalist Society on the Upper West Side of Manhattan; an editor and writer for more than 20 years before answering the call to ministry, she is the author of a memoir, Unafraid of the Dark and a former editor at the New York Times Book Review.

Enjoy fellowship, music, meals and workshops!

All are welcome - but space is limited! More information and registration forms will be available soon at murraygrove.org.

Murray Grove Retreat and Renewal Center: 609-693-5558 • murraygrove@murraygrove.org